40th Anniversary Dinner

5 September 2019

Around 70 choir members and friends enjoyed a get-together at Woodbourne House, Douglas to celebrate 40 years of the Isle of Man Choral Society (formerly Isle of Man Teachers Choir).

Chairman, Charles Fargher welcomed everyone and after a lovely buffet, Dylis Watson, a founding member, proposed a toast to the Choir. Entertainment was provided by Graham Crowe who had everyone rocking with laughter at his jokes! The highlight had to be Tom Pickard, son of the Choir's Founder, Alan Pickard, conducting the choir in a rendition of The Hallelujah Chorus, proudly watched by Mum Avril.
